

Opposition To Longer Tavern Hours Growing

But Many County Board Members Would Oppose Attempt For Repeal

The scales are tipping in the direction of repeal of the longer Madison county tavern hours adopted last month, but it is uncertain whether enough supervisors have changed their minds to reverse the 37-4 action. The issue may be revisited at the Aug. 23 board meeting.

A Press-Record survey during the weekend showed six of 12 local county board members still favoring the extended hours; two favoring the previous 1 a.m. closing law because of its uniformity with many cities; one also favoring but citing Edwardsville, which has a 2 a.m. law; two undecided; and one declining to comment.

In the face of mounting concern over the immediate and side effects of virtually unlimited drinking in unincorporated areas of the county, two of the 37 voting "Yes" last month immediately announced a change of heart.

With three or four additional "No" votes indicated in the Quad-City survey, an opposition group of at least ten appears certain. Whether this grows to the necessary size for a successful repeal attempt will depend on supervisors' views in other sections, and on the impact of public opinion throughout the county.

Opposed By Ministers

Among those attacking the July action was the Quad-City Ministerial Association, which said, "Secretive, hurried-up legislation has a record of not being good for all the people, but favoring a special few." The hours vote was not an open meeting agenda item, but the usual channels followed in having the resolution passed.

The action set closing hours at 2:30 a.m. during the weekend and 3:30 a.m. Sunday mornings. The 1 a.m. law had not been rigidly enforced by county authorities, but direct arrest powers for closing violations were vested in the sheriff's office staff this year. Several arrests followed.

Comments of local members of the county board to the Press-Record were as follows:

Webb Against Longer Hours

William B. Webb Jr., an assistant supervisor of Granite City township, is opposed to the longer tavern hours and noted that he was out of town on vacation at the time of the July board meeting.

"Just prior to my last election, the ministerial group sent me a letter and asked me different questions," Webb relates. "I filled it in and mailed it back to them. They asked about tavern hours. I said 'No' then and I haven't changed my mind. I am against the later hours."

The hope should be uniform between the cities and the county. (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4)

Same Name, Mothers Give Birth Same Day

Maternity room nurses at St. Elizabeth Hospital thought it was a mother doing double duty Sunday.

Both named Mrs. Judith Thies, two Granite City women gave birth to six-pound baby girls yesterday at the hospital.

A six and one-half pound girl was born to Dr. and Mrs. E. Howard Thies, 2823 Grand avenue, To Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thies, 3672 Namewick road, was born a six-pound, 15-ounce girl.

August Building At $37,175 In GC; New Church

A church building costing $30,000 was the largest of 20 new construction permits issued in Granite City last week, worth a total of $24,700.

They bring the August construction figure to $37,175 and 20 permits issued at city hall by Building Inspector Earl Bloomquist and City Clerk A. L. Stevens, with a little more than two weeks remaining.

The church will be built by the First Church of God at 2064 Pershing ave. in the American Gardens subdivision. Located at the front of a 50x150-foot lot with dimensions of 28x88 feet, the steep-roofed building will be finished with wood siding.

Commercial Permits

Commercial permits were issued to Paul Harshbarger, $1200 for general alterations to a service station at 2540 Washington avenue and $200 for an electric advertising sign with 16 square feet of display surface at the same address.

A commercial permit also went to State Radio and Television Co., 1336 State street, $500 to lower a ceiling.

Permits for general repairs and alterations were issued to Richard Morgan, $1500 to the golf course at 1232 Meridian street; Rufus Wood, $2400 for a room addition at 1232 Meridian street; and Matt Caspary, $1000 for a porch and garage at 2116 Cleveland.

Other Repairs, Alterations

Ed Whaley, $700 for a roof and siding at 2929 Washington; Bill Dunning, $1800 for siding and alterations at 2228 Ohio avenue; Mrs. Hazel Wheeler, $500 for general repairs at 2808 Pershing ave.; Rockford Meyers, $500 for a patio at 3132 Ash avenue; Joe Schwertman, $200 for general repairs at 3140 Namewick road; St. Joseph Catholic Church, $500 to rebuild a back porch at 2116 Edison avenue; Mrs. John J. TELEPHONE STATION equipment. Station Manager A. G. Ameriski is shown here at the control board, trying out the new facilities a mile north of the Chain of Rocks Canal bridge, adjacent to the ex-levee, WGK, which has been serving towboats on inland waterways from the foot of Rutger street in St. Louis since 1935, is moving operations to its new location tomorrow.

New Marine Radio-Telephone Station Opens Here Tomorrow

Closing its quarters in St. Louis and moving here, a major marine radio-telephone station will set up shop in the Quad-Cities tomorrow.

WGK, which has been serving towboats on the inland waterways from its "shack" at the foot of Rutger street in St. Louis since 1935, is moving its operations to a new "shack" six miles north of Granite City. The new two-room building, which with its equipment is valued at $100,000, is located a mile north of the Chain of Rocks Canal bridge, adjacent to the east levee.

An open house for the public will be held Friday from noon till 7 p.m. at the new facilities. Owned by RCA Communications, Inc., the station features direct phone and teletype service for those companies that have the receiving equipment.

"Our station, for example, can teletype the ETA (expected time of arrival) at say, Memphis or a towboat to its home office if they have a teletype," explained A. G. Ameriski, station manager. He went on to say that the station is the only telegraph service for vessels in the area.

Contact Gulf, Minnesota

"We talk with ships in the Gulf of Mexico daily," Ameriski explained. "Our farthest point east with which we communicate is Pittsburgh; north is St. Paul; and west is Sioux City, Iowa," concluded the station manager.

WGK employs seven men, including Ameriski, and offers 24-hour service, with two men working the day shift and one on each of the other two shifts. The present station operates on 1600 watts but the new facilities will have increased power.

The new transmitter has a 110-foot tower with three 80-foot emergency antennas for a smaller emergency transmitter inside the building.

Live River Information

Ameriski pointed out that the station cannot broadcast weather forecasts due to its vast receiving area, but it does give river stages at regular times.

Green Elected Business Agent

Jack Green was elected at a Thursday night meeting of the International Hod Carriers and Building Laborers Union Local 397 to fill an unexpired term as business agent, a position he has held on an acting basis by temporary appointment since early July.

Green was named acting business agent last month when Emmett Courtney, who was serving as both president and business agent for the local, resigned the latter position. Courtney announced at the time that an election to fill his unexpired term would be held in August.

Charles Parker, Local 397 secretary, said Green was unopposed for the office, and that results of the election became effective immediately. The term will expire next June.

Green was prohibited from holding union office during a three-year probationary period set by a federal court in 1957. He and the union were convicted in September 1954 for violation of the Hobbs anti-trust law, and the case was reviewed in July 1957 by the U. S. Appeals Court in Chicago. Both the local and business agent paid $3000 fines.

GEODESIC DOME, shown being assembled in Lee Park by members of the Venice park district staff, will help shelter those attending the annual Venice Homecoming and Memorial Association homecoming festival this weekend. The new 39-foot-diameter dome has steel framework and plywood walls coated with plastic; its cost was $1254. Lower part of the structure could be screened or enclosed later.

4 Charged With School Burglary

Nine thefts reported in the Quad-Cities over the weekend include break-ins at two service stations, a tavern and a bakery.

Solving a burglary at the Lincoln school July 19, Venice police Thursday arrested four Rock Island residents for burglary and larceny. A typewriter that had been pawned in East St. Louis was recovered, as was a duplicating machine that had been damaged in being thrown out of a window from the County road in Venice.

Charles Singleton, 17, Andrew Cunningham, 17, and No Name Thomas, 20, waived preliminary hearings Friday night and were bound over to the grand jury by judge Magistrate Wesley Edwards.

They were taken to the county jail along with a 16-year-old boy to be tried for burglary and larceny in the county juvenile court.

Intruder Flees After Shot

An attempt to enter the home of Mrs. Louise Huddleston, 39, of 1514 1/2 South Madison, was thwarted at 10:10 p.m. Saturday when she fired one shot from a 22-caliber pistol at a burglar.

Inspecting the upstairs apartment, police found the bullet in the hallway floor. An investigation is proceeding.

Tavern Looted

Walter's tavern, 4362 L & K, was looted by a burglar. It was discovered Saturday morning.

Articles taken were a "plaza" containing $20, and two cases of beer, three cartons of cigarettes, gum, peanuts, candy, an electric razor, cigarette lighter, razor blades and three watches.

The thief removed a window from the back door and unlocked the door, an investigation is proceeding.

Man Pinned Under Auto

After Collision; Small Girl Thrown Under Car

Sixteen persons suffered injuries requiring medical care over the weekend as 21 auto accidents occurred in and near the Quad-Cities.

No fatalities were reported, although a small girl narrowly escaped death when she was knocked under a neighbor's auto, and a man was thrown from his car and under the wheels of another auto during a collision.

Edwin Goodman, 43, of 2626 Grand avenue was seriously injured when he was pinned under his auto in a collision with a 1961 street and Grand avenue at 8:25 p.m. Friday.

Thrown out of his car, which was going north on Grand, Goodman was trapped under the right rear of the westbound auto of Joseph Cobb, 56, of 506 State street, Madison. Police said both were caught under the vehicle.

Cobb suffered a possible rib fracture and was treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Goodman was treated here for head, nose and chin cuts, receiving 60 stitches to close his cuts, and was transferred early Saturday to St. Mary's Hospital, East St. Louis, where his condition was described as fair.

There was damage to the front and right side of Goodman's car, and both sides of the other auto, both being towed to a garage.

Building Still Halted, Meet Again Today

Several Hundred Thousand Dollars Damage At Nestle

Damage from the savage explosion that destroyed the existing department of the Nestle Co., Inc., instant coffee plant at 21st and Adams streets, at 1:15 p.m. last Wednesday is expected to total several hundred thousand dollars.

A Nestle spokesman said a more specific estimate will be available the completion of a study of the damaged facilities and equipment by the firm and by insurance company representatives. Undecided questions include the future value of various items of partially damaged equipment, he explained.

Also undetermined is the cause of the blast, which killed two employees, injured six others and halted production for about the next eight months.

It is hoped to arrive at the cause by a process of elimination. "We already know many things that did not cause the explosion, but we still don't know what did cause it," the spokesman commented, adding that this is the first time such an accident has occurred at any Nestle plant.

Some of the equipment is being taken apart piece by piece and other machines are being x-rayed to aid in establishing the cause, knowledge of which will help prevent future hazards, it was explained. The investigation may take many weeks.

Following closely on the community's generous response of manpower and machines to aid in the work, another example of generosity was reported during the weekend.

Contribute Pay For Rescue Work

Koppers Construction Co. workers, who spent long hours at the disaster scene Wednesday and Thursday, learned that they were to be paid overtime and promptly decided to contribute a portion of the pay the families of the two men killed in the explosion and building collapse.

They were in this area due to construction work at the Granite City Steel Co. Blast Furnace Department, and each of about 12 men worked eight hours. It was estimated. The contribution is expected to total at least several hundred dollars.

The Nestle spokesman expressed deep gratitude for the part local people played in the disaster. He said the company is grateful to the local harbor area for loading and unloading. The barges will be "parked" before and after docking at the wharf.

President Carl Rant, Board Members William Beatty and Harry E. Hartman and Commander John Barron, port officials, conferred last week in Chicago with bond firm officials on arrangements for issuance of bonds to finance construction of wharf and loading facilities.

Tri-City Port District To Let First Contract

The Tri-City Regional Port District will let the first contract in its history at a meeting at 7 o'clock tonight at the port offices at 21st and Adams streets.

Twenty-first street. The contract is for operation of a barge switching operation at the wharf.

Seven firms have obtained specifications for the contract, which involves moving barges from the main river near the Tri-City Regional Port District to the local harbor area for loading and unloading. The barges will be "parked" before and after docking at the wharf.

Granite City township tax collection will end here tomorrow. Collector Frank Sappington reported today.

avenue, narrowly escaped death shortly after 7 p. m. Saturday when she was knocked down and thrown under a neighbor's auto.

The child was on her way to play with a neighbor boy when the boy's father, Raymond Werner, 421 Vincent, began backing out of his driveway. She stopped immediately after she was struck, and jumped up the car to aid in removing her in the event she had been seriously injured. However, wheels of the auto had not reached her.

The girl was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital, where she was treated for swelling and contusions to the face and forehead, and for leg abrasions resulting from gravel, she was released, and is being taken to a physician today for further examination.

Crash Injures Three

A two-car collision on Route 111 about 400 feet north of the intersection with Route 40 at 10:30 p. m. Friday hospitalized both drivers and a passenger in one of the cars.

State troopers said the auto of Charles Jack Johnson, 42, of 2519 Jordan avenue also hit a bridge pier before coming to a halt after the crash. Johnson was admitted to St. Mary's Hospital, East St. Louis, with possible head injuries.

Occupants of the other car, Edwin Clifton, 33, and his wife, Ruth, 29, Route One, Edwardsville, also were hospitalized with possible internal injuries.

Motorcycle Enters Ditch

Paul Bogosian, 26, of 4740 Kirkpatrick Homes suffered severe injuries at 11:36 a. m. Saturday when he lost control of his motorcycle and it ran into a ditch at 2401 Namokel road.

Taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital, he was treated for fractures of the left little toe, abrasions to the left thigh and left side of the chest, and lacerations to the left elbow. The front of the motorcycle was damaged.

Police said Bogosian was emerging from the Kirkpatrick Homes housing project and turning left to head north on Namokel road when the motorcycle went out of control.

Opposition Growing

ty. How could I be for a new juvenile detention home and also for the longer hours?"

Allen would vote "No." Milton R. Allen, also a Granite City assistant supervisor, said that he would vote against the later hours if the question came up again. "I've been thinking about it a good deal since the last meeting," he added.

"Increased revenue is the main aim behind the new hours," Allen stated. We want to raise the license fees for staying open later, but we won't be able to vote on that until the December meeting. And sales tax receipts will be up also.

He said he favors a uniform closing time for all taverns in the county. "But when one closes earlier, how do we do it?" he asked. "The majority of the municipalities should get together and set an hour and stick to it. That would be something the county would go along with."

He said he would vote "No" if the county had a uniform closing time. "I certainly favor uniform tavern hours between the county and the cities, such as Edwardsville."

"All this came up quickly, and no one was there to give any objections. I don't believe it would have passed."

Save Finance Was Stressed

"It was presented as a way of saving some extra money, and everybody is very money-conscious because of the times," he said. "We are going into the red, and it was felt that the city should save some money out of it."

Robert Gough, a Granite City assistant supervisor, commented, "I know this will be coming up again but I haven't the heart to vote. I intend to give plenty of thought to it before the meeting, though," he said.

He declined to comment at this time on whether he felt the move was good or bad for the county.

Troemaker Will "Cross Bridge" Chouteau Supervisor Joseph Troemaker of Mitchell, asked if he has given further thought to the new county tavern closing hours, said, "That's a pretty personal question . . . and I'll cross that bridge when I get to it."

When asked if the topic would be discussed at the next meeting, he replied, "I've been told they will discuss it, but I'll tell you the same thing I told another reporter—that I'll cross my bridge when I get to it. I don't stand pat. . . . No, I wouldn't consider changing my vote."

Nelson Hagner, new Granite City township supervisor, said he would still vote for the later hours. "I haven't heard anything about it coming up again, but I would vote the same way if it did."

"If an amendment came up it would take a two-thirds vote to pass. The later hours haven't hurt anybody and won't hurt anybody," he commented.

County Needs Money—Maurer Jay D. Maurer, a Venice township assistant supervisor, said he is still for the later hours. "Money-wise it's a good thing. The county needs the money," he said.

Maurer said he favors uniform hours all over the county. "But until we get them there will be problems. There won't be any answer as long as some taverns stay open later than others."

He noted that there are about 140 taverns in the county and said only four or five are trouble spots. "If the sheriff or the tavern association will police these four or five, the later hours will work out."

Pendleton Unchanged "I'd probably vote the same way I did before—for the extended hours—if it should come up for a vote again," said Homer "Cal" Pendleton, another Granite City assistant supervisor, when asked if he had given further thought to the hours.

to Granite City Wednesday night only hours after the explosion. The explosion occurred at a press conference late Thursday afternoon. "The people of Granite City and St. Clair and Madison counties responded to the needs of this tragedy unsparingly without any thought of their own safety or personal comfort. We are deeply grateful to each organization and individual who came to our aid."

Children Take Insect Poison; Others Treated

Two children who swallowed insecticides were among those receiving emergency treatment at St. Elizabeth Hospital Thursday, and two others were treated.

Robert Michael Baker, two, 4331 Madison avenue, was treated at 9 a.m. after drinking small amount of liquid insect killer, and two-year-old Susan Boyd, 2442 Hodges avenue, was treated at 5:45 p.m. after eating solid ant poison. Both were given stomach lavages and released.

Hugh Weaver, 10, of 2910 West 20th street required nine stitches to close scalp and chest lacerations after a fall at his home. He was treated at 3:30 p.m. and released after treatment.

Gary Anderson, 10, of 2810 Lincoln avenue was released after stitches were taken in a cut on his right leg. He said he struck a piece of glass while swimming.

Skids On Wet Pavement
It was reported to Granite City police Thursday that a car, driven by Elizabeth Kahn, 38, of 2411 Delta avenue, had skidded on wet pavement the previous night and sustained damage to the left rear. The accident occurred on Johnson road at Garfield avenue.

The estimated deficit does not take into account proposals for about $700,000 in capital expenditures, including $35,000 to purchase a building next to the county jail, $320,000 for a juvenile detention home and $400,000 for the addition of a fourth floor to the courthouse.

The tax increase for the 1970 county employees represents an across-the-board raise of $24 a month.

Court Ruling
The financial difficulties result partially from an Illinois Supreme Court ruling which returned the county's general fund from 10 cents to 5.67 cents per $100 valuation, thereby cutting yearly revenue by $350,000 from what the county had become accustomed to using.

The half-cent service occupation tax is being considered as one solution. St. Clair county voted the tax and expects to add $300,000 to its collections.

The tax would be applied to sales of materials by persons engaged primarily in selling various services in unincorporated areas of the county.

Also being considered as a new revenue source is the investment of unused funds. About $300,000 is currently available, and most of it requires only the board's approval to invest.

An additional $250,000 is in escrow tax accounts.

A bill passed by the Legislature in its past session and awaiting Gov. Otto Kerner's signature would permit the payment of taxes paid under protest and held until court rulings determine whether they can be used.

The possibility of submitting two separate budgets was raised to show the items which would have to be cut in order for the county to operate in the black.

One would show the slashed budget, which would continue to be within expected income. The other would show the cost of operating on the proposed scale, allowing in the main the budgets as presented by the various county offices.

JP Costs, Receipts
Among the groups meeting with the finance committee were the five justices of the peace in the county. Four, including Justice Harry E. Hartman of Granite City, indicated that their offices would be self-supporting during the coming fiscal year.

The fifth, Justice Earl Vaughan of Edwardsville, said he could not produce the $1000 per month receipts used as an estimated break-even point.

Each of the four others said they probably will take in about $1000 in court costs a month. Justice George M. Berry cited the highest estimated figure — $1200.

Hartman told the committee he has been averaging about $800 a month in costs received, but at while he indicated he would eventually reach the $1000 level he said, "I don't see how I can go more than that."

He said he spends about 85% of his time on Justice of the peace work and conducts his law business on weekends. He added that he expects to move his court from the law office because of lack of space and that he will need to add the extra rental to his monthly expenses.

County May Face Deficit of
Over $500,000

When the 1961-62 Madison county budget is acted on Aug. 23, its deficit must be at least $578,700. To show the financial alternatives open to the county and the board is submitting the budget to the board of supervisors.

The possible deficit has been estimated by the board finance committee, which since Aug. 1 has been holding budget hearings with various county departments.

Chairman Leslie Prehn reported that if all department budgets are approved without change, the county will operate with a deficit for the first time in decades.

The deficit total includes the $175,300 in excess requests in the budgets of county employees, and the $350,000 deficit resulting from the reduced general levy.

Idle Funds
The committee may slash department budgets and bring the possible deficit figure down to $100,000, but it is considering adoption of a half-cent per-dollar service occupation tax and is also discussing a further investment of "idle funds" to relieve the critical financial situation.

The estimated deficit does not take into account proposals for about $700,000 in capital expenditures, including $35,000 to purchase a building next to the county jail, $320,000 for a juvenile detention home and $400,000 for the addition of a fourth floor to the courthouse.

Grain Factor In Record '61 Water Traffic Here

Inland waterway traffic through the locks at both Granite City and Alton reached an all-time high during July. Record figures here were announced earlier.

Tonnage through the locks at Alton reached 2,419,659. At Locks 27, the July tonnage was 2,418,845 tons.

There also were all-time highs in the number of vessels to go through the locks and the number of lockages. At Locks 26 the total vessels was 3523, with 941 lockages, while at Locks 27 vessels numbered 4096 and lockages 1003.

Col. Alfred J. D'Arèzzo, district engineer, in commenting on the record, said the totals for this year through July were 13,414,561 at Locks 27, with Alton Locks 26 a close second at 13,268,113 tons. In both cases, the tonnage so far this year exceeds that of the same period for last year.

Col. D'Arèzzo pointed out that the record at Locks 27 is particularly significant this month because it is the first time that the traffic pattern has been reversed to make grain the leader over petroleum products.

At Locks 26, however, petroleum products is the leader by a narrow margin.

397 Answer Job
Questionnaires

At the end of the first two weeks, 397 men and women have filled out applicant survey questionnaires at the Granite City office of the Illinois State Employment Service and the Division of Unemployment Compensation, M. A. Thompson, office manager, reports.

Thompson said the number is slightly lower than had been anticipated, but that the rate may increase during the latter part of the month. The survey will continue until the end of August.

Primary purpose of the study is to obtain information on the occupational characteristics of workers seeking permanent, full-time employment. The survey results are tabulated and forwarded to Gov. Kerner's Committee on Unemployment and the Illinois Department of Labor.

Persons who are collecting unemployment compensation receive the questionnaires at the time of registering their names and other unemployed persons are asked to come to the Employment Service office at 2059 Iowa street at any time before the end of the month to fill out the forms.

Thompson has urged all unemployed persons in the Quad-Cities area who are seeking permanent work to visit the office, not only to receive the questionnaire but also to register for work for which they may be qualified.

Women Voters' League
To Organize Tonight

A Granite City League of Women Voters may officially get underway tonight at 7:30 in a meeting at the YMCA.

Having met other requirements, the local group will be ready for provisional league status if 35 interested women are present and registered at the meeting. Mrs. Emily Senefelt, temporary chairman, said.

Officers will be elected at the organizational meeting and committees will be formed. Two state league officers will also be present.

Madison Bowling Club Remodeling Project Nearing Completion

A complete interior renovation of the Madison Bowling Club at 10th street and Madison avenue is nearing completion today, and the manager of the establishment, Harry Briggs, said plans call for the club to reopen early next week.

Begun on June 20, the remodeling includes completely new interior light fixtures, acoustical tile ceilings and new floors, the relocation of a snack bar on the south side of the building, installation of a new cocktail lounge on the north side and the installation of new automatic pinsetters.

The bowling establishment will retain the same number of lanes—12—but all have been completely refinished, Briggs said.

To be known as the Madison Bowling Club, Inc., the house includes Mike Sayak and Kelly Datto as corporation officers in addition to Briggs.

A grand opening will be held, Briggs said, but no date for the event has yet been set.

Physical Exams Are Required Of Grade, JHS Grid Hopefuls

All eighth and ninth grade students in Granite City who plan to participate in football at their respective schools this fall should complete required physical examinations as soon as possible.

Athletic Director Dick Yates of the GC public schools said today.

Physical examination cards are available for ninth graders at Coolidge and Prather junior high schools and for eighth graders at Central grade school, the athletic director said.

Yates stressed that the physical examination cards, completed by a physician, together with a $2.25 insurance fee to be paid at the students' respective school offices, are necessary before any boy can report for the issue of equipment and practice.

Because Coolidge JHS has a larger enrollment, Yates said, football Coach Frank Kraus will send cards to prospective players. The Braves will hold their first fall workout on Aug. 28.

No cards will be sent to prospective players at Prather junior high. Instead, boys interested in going out for football will report to Coach Carroll Sanders or Assistant Coach Conrad Champion at 9 a.m. Friday, Aug. 25.

Students at Central Junior high, where an eighth grade class will be conducted again this fall, also should complete

Western Horse Show Here Will Include Quarter Horses

Quarter horses play a prominent role in any Western Horse Show, as they will at the Granite City Rotary All-Western Horse Show to be held Aug. 26 at 7 p.m. at the Tri-City Speedway.

The quarter horse is to the horse world what the "drugsters" or "sprint cars" are to automotive world.

Quarter horses have been known for years for their tremendous bursts of speed over comparatively short distances.

The quarter horse originated along the Eastern seaboard in Colonial times but was actually developed in the southwest ranch country in the United States.

The early colonists were fond of horse racing and crossed imported English horses with those of Spanish origin obtained from settlements to the south.

Races were most commonly held down the main street of the small villages. Horses showing an early burst of speed were usually the winner. For this reason, they developed the horse now called the Quarter Horse, famous for its speed over a quarter mile track.

As the thoroughbred rose in popularity around the late 1700s due to lengthening of the races, the quarter horse breeding was discontinued. This situation remained for almost a hundred years, with the quarter horse being known and favored only by stockmen of the western ranges who knew and valued it as a stock and ranch horse.

Large Following

In recent years, the quarter horse has gained a tremendous following as a running, show and performance horse. Its high intelligence and handiness have encouraged use of the quarter horse in competitive performance and as a personal mount.

The Granite Rotary Horse Show registered more quarter horse event will be divided into three classes: stallions of any age, mares of any age and geldings of any age. The horses' registration papers must be on hand to be shown at the time of entry.

The horses may be shown at halter or bridle, with American Quarter Horse Association rules to prevail.

I-C Representatives Will Attempt To Fill Vacancy On Friday

Player representatives and managers of the nine teams remaining in the Southwestern Illinois Inter-City Baseball League will meet Friday night in East St. Louis, with the chief item of business expected to be discussion of a possible replacement for the White City team.

The squad dropped out of the league earlier this month due to financial troubles and lack of player personnel.

The meeting will be held at Moose Lodge No. Four 16th street and Summit avenue, with the Moose as host team. It also will mark the deadline for the clubs' signing of players for the 1961 season.

In team action involving local clubs, Granite City Sacred Heart re-signed Pitcher Monroe Worthen and released Players Bob Jones, Phil Hogan, Jim Falk, Jim O'Master and Howard Ebertson.

Mercer Funeral Home Manager Ollie Miller already has announced the signing of Don Kratochvil, manager of the outgoing White City club, as a pitcher and infielder. Miller said outfielder Vic Buehler has been released in order to make room for Kratochvil on the Mercer roster.

Members of the defunct White City club have been declared free agents by I-C League President Vernon Lucas, and other clubs in the league whose rosters are below the legal limit are expected to pick up the contracts of a number of White City players prior to Friday's league meeting.

Kelly's Wins Two From Valmeyer On Thursday, 10-2, 10-5

The Venice Kelly Girls tightened their hold on second place in the Girls' Twilight Softball league Thursday night by defeating Valmeyer a double setback on the losers' diamond, 10-2 and 10-5.

Join Turpiano got credit for the win in the first game, while Sandy Klaas was victorious in the second contest. Kelly's has second place clinched in the eight team loop.

At 8 p.m. Thursday, the team will face league champion Collinsville in the wrap-up game for both clubs at Lee Park in Venice.

On Friday evening, "sudden death" playoffs will begin at Collinsville and in Venice. Third and fourth-place finishers in the league will be decided early this week. Belleville and Alorton are battling for the two remaining playoff berths. Survivors of the Thursday games will begin a best two-out-of-three series for the playoff trophy Saturday.

Park District Battles Way To Monticello

Legate, Huff, Six Hurl Victories; Jackson's Wins Title, Chiefs Third

Hemped by injuries to some of its regular player personnel, the Granite City park district softball squad fought back over the weekend to emerge with a second-place trophy at the Wood River ASA sectional tournament and a berth in the Illinois state softball class 'A' tournament which begins Wednesday at Monticello.

The Park District actually earned its trip to the state finals Saturday night with a 5-2 victory over Frank's Brite Service of Belleville. The winner was guaranteed at least a third-place finish, good enough for a place in the brackets at Monticello since no sectional was held at Columbia this year and the Wood River third-place team will serve as the "Columbia winner."

Legate Winner
Max Legate, making his first start in four years, got credit for the all-important win Saturday, although he needed help in the final inning.

The following afternoon, Granite City reached the finals of the double elimination tournament as Ray Huff tossed a five-hitter at the Alton Chiefs for a 3-2 decision. The loss eliminated the Chiefs from the tourney, but not before they had clinched third place—and that trip to Monticello.

Dean McGovern's crew broke a 2-2 tie in the top of the ninth when Art Borchers singled, advanced on an outfield error, took third on a wild pitch and scored when another of losing pitcher Junior Crockett's tosses eluded the catcher.

Beat Champ Sunday
The McGovern men may not be able to claim the sectional title, but they did force the tournament champions, Jackson's of Alton, into a second final game before possession of the first place trophy was established.

Jackson's, by beating Springfield Insurance of Granite City, the Park District squad (8-7) and the Chiefs, had entered the finals undefeated.

The Park District broke the string of wins late Sunday afternoon with a 3-1 win behind Leo Six's, four-hitter. Jackson's run was unearned.

Granite City had taken a 1-0 lead in the fourth on Jim Bailey's triple and a fielder's choice. In the sixth, a walk, throwing error and singles by Harold Portell and Al Kutner produced two runs.

A second game matching the same two opponents was necessary, since the defeat was Jackson's first loss of the "lose two and you're out" tournament.

4 Games In 2 Days
Playing their fourth game in two days and their third Sunday contest, the Park nine did not have it in the final, which went to Jackson's by a 7-2 count.

The champions reached Norm Grote for three runs on three hits in the second, and then got three more in the third.

Granite City scored once in the third on singles from Art Borchers and Andy Angeloff and a walk, and Bailey's second triple of the day led to the two runs in the fifth. The Chiefs' final tally in the fifth, The tired GC contingent had four hits. The meet was completed

Polish Hall Deals Bowland First Loss

Bowland's first defeat in Tavern League softball play came one week too late to prevent the club from claiming first place outright, but members of the Bowland team nevertheless claimed a moral victory and looked ahead to the post-season playoffs following a 6-3 win over the league champs yesterday morning.

Stan Serwacki pitched Polish Hall to the win as Bowland bowed for the first time in 15 games. Sonny Miloski suffered his first setback as Polish Hall moved to within three games of the lead.

Bill Tutka caught for the winners, and George Gibson for the losers. Joe Asinger of Polish Hall and Roy Hoffman of Bowland paced bat swingers with three hits each.

Sportsman's Stays Close

Sportsman's kept pace with Polish Hall by downing Jug's Hideaway 4-2, with Jim Goodrich the winner. Gene McMurry caught. Oren Harrison and George Miller made the Jug's battery. Cliff Miller and Jesse Ybarra each had two hits, as did Everett Cottrell for Jug's.

Millie & Mickey's pulled an upset by dealing fifth-place Jug's Mill an 8-7 setback, as Harold Sabo got credit for the win. John Sabo was his batterymate. Steve Hordecky was the loser, and Bucky Slames the Jug's Mill receiver.

Charles Jones and Charles Sabo each had a pair of hits for the winners, while Joe Asinger, Jerry Tague, John Allen and Bob Brazel each connected twice for Jug's Mill.

Club Delmar was awarded a forfeit win over Home of the Blues, who forfeited their game inactive Tubby's.

Funeral Services Today

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. today at a Madison funeral home for Earl C. Siebert, 67, of 2208 Charles street, who was dead on arrival at St. Elizabeth hospital last Wednesday after collapsing at the wheel of a truck he was driving. Burial was in St. John's Cemetery.

Survivors include his wife, Della; two daughters, Miss Hilda Ann Siebert of Marvill, and Miss Hazel Laird, who is living in Japan; a son, Earl, of Tulsa, Okla.; and one grandchild.

Two Violations Charged

Dr. L. L. Larrick, 33, of 1549 Hemlock avenue was arrested Friday at 6:35 a. m. and charged with running a stop sign at Woodland avenue and Mayville road and speeding on Pontoon lake. He was charged with two violations of the state's traffic laws. The posted her driver's license as a truck he was driving. Two new Safeguards against Cancellation and Surcharges give written protection against cancellation due to accidents plus the assurance that State Farm's low rates will stay low (no surcharges as a penalty for accidents or traffic violations). # Our Thanks to You for your wonderful response in our time of need, Wednesday, August 9. The way you came to the scene and contributed equipment, time and labor without thought of your own expense or comfort or personal safety makes us proud to be your friend and neighbor. This has given us still another reason for rebuilding our plant here in Granite City.

How can we say thank you effectively to so many people, who sought no recognition? This is one way.

The list below is incomplete, we know, but even if your name is not on this list, our thanks are still addressed to you.

We wish, too, that we could record here the many instances of heroism and self sacrifice which occurred. We know about them and you do, too, but the very fact these acts were done for their own sake and not for recognition makes them all the more genuine and heart warming.

Sewer Break, Cave-Ins Eating Away Yard On Aubrey Ave.

Trouble along the Nameoki sewer line continues to be a personal and ever-present problem for the Robert Margeson family of 3156 Aubrey Avenue.

With the exception of city employees who have been called out to repair numerous breaks on the line this summer, the Margesons probably have had the closest—and most unpleasant—contact with one of the city's chief headaches.

A goodly portion of the Margeson backyard has "disappeared" as the result of a sewer break and resulting cave-in there, and by last week the situation was further complicated. Another deep hole has appeared in the yard adjacent to an area which collapsed on July 13, and has been shored up with piling in the first step toward completing repairs.

'No Laughing Matter'
Heavy rains and seepage are believed to be responsible for the latest collapse, which must in turn be dug out and shored up. The Margeson yard may have the appearance of a swimming pool construction site, but that is not the purpose of the excavations, and "it's no laughing matter," Mrs. Margeson said. "It has been an inconvenience to us, of course," she said, but a necessary one. Some of the neighbors have been complaining about the noise of machinery used by the city to make repairs, but if it's necessary we can put up with it."

The Margesons' troubles are not the first experienced here in connection with the Nameoki sewer, which Resident City Engineer W. A. "Al" Pearson said has been "underground about six or seven years."

Repair Costs Mount
Over a period of three years, the city has spent $83,500 to repair breaks along the line. Repair costs probably will match or exceed that figure this summer alone—even if no additional breaks occur in the line.

On June 11 a section of the street in the 3900 block of Terrace Lane collapsed over a break in the line. Repair costs were $16,000.

A month later, the Margesons awoke to find a 10x10-foot hole in their backyard, and by the time it had been shored up for repairs the excavation measured 14x20 feet. First estimates as to the cost of repairing the break were $40,000.

Then came the second collapse. Workmen have been hampered by heavy rains—the area's rainfall is more than seven inches above normal for this time of year—and the unseasonably wet weather may be a contributing factor to the sewer breaks in the first place.

The line is not designed to handle storm water, which nevertheless enters at a number of locations. Pearson theories that the break on an easement at the Margeson property probably occurred at a tap and was caused by a leak in the line or what is called the infiltration and exfiltration.

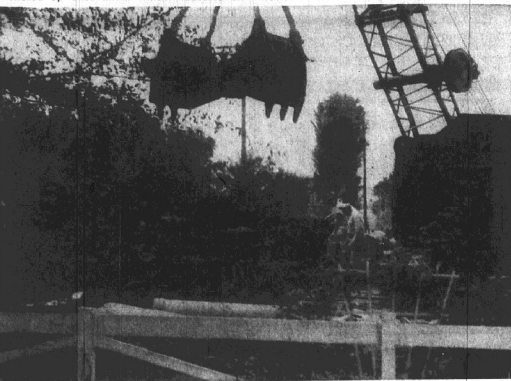

Heavy equipment around the original cave-in on the Margeson property, placed there to dewater and assist in repairs, coupled with rains which soaked the ground, may have contributed to the second cave-in. It is thought that another sewer line break is not responsible.

The break on Aubrey Avenue is the sixth to occur on the Nameoki line this summer.

Home Not Endangered
Mrs. Margeson said that the Margeson home apparently is in no danger.

WATER-FILLED PIT, second of two to develop in backyard of Robert Margeson home at 3156 Aubrey Avenue, where city is making costly repairs to a break in a 15-inch Nameoki sewer line. Hose and pipe are attached to pump removing water from the shored up excavation, which measures 8x14 feet.

OVERALL VIEW of repair project at the Margeson home shows steel piling which was driven into ground around Nameoki sewer line break to prevent further cave-ins. Despite precautions, another hole, 8x14 feet in size, has appeared adjacent to the initial excavation. Crane and clamshell bucket are being used by city to excavate around the break in the line, which occurred some 15 feet below the surface and was the sixth on the line this year.

no immediate danger of suffering damage as a result of the sewer break and collapse of the ground, although it is only a few feet from the repair excavation.

"I have noticed excessive dampness in our basement this summer—more than ever before—but it may be from all the rain we've had," she said. Meanwhile, repair work at the site has been halted temporarily by that's right—more rain.

Optimists Hear Talk On Civil Air Patrol

Daybreak Optimists Saturday morning hosted four guests, including a speaker who discussed the civil air patrol.

Major George Christopolis, commander of the 302nd Civil Air Patrol Group, outlined CAP's 20-year history. He explained that today, most members are teenagers trained for sky search duty.

Two members of the Noonday Optimist club, B. C. "Tip" O'Neil and Floyd Mitchell, made a report on the joint Optimist Christmas tree lot. The fourth guest was John Morlock, a steel foundry worker from Sydney, Australia, who is in Granite City for a short time observing steel production techniques.

President David Larkin was in charge of the meeting, attended by 15 members.

Barry Jo Wood To Reign As Miss Granite City of 1962

BARRY JO WOOD was named Miss Granite City 1962 over a field of eight contestants Saturday night at the annual pageant. She is crowned in a pink and black swimming suit for the judging, and also showed dress in her design.

A comely, brown-eyed miss who was too stunned to cry when she heard the news was crowned Miss Granite City 1962 Saturday night at the annual pageant sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce at the high school auditorium.

Miss Barry Jo Wood, 21, of 2406 Edison avenue was selected from a field of eight contestants by four out-of-town judges. She will reign one year and represent Granite City next summer at the annual Miss Illinois pageant.

Asked if she had an impulse to weep when the crown was placed on her head, as many beauty winners do, she replied that tears never came her first reaction when she is crowned.

"It was surprising, it all happened so quickly," she said. Miss Wood's Apparel The brown-haired queen appeared in a full-length, tiered white formal, a pink knit swimming suit trimmed with black braid, and a black suit with a white scoop neck which she quickly converted into an outfit suitable for a variety of occasions.

As her talent offering—dress designing—Miss Wood added a circular cape to the outfit before removing the jacket, which made it into an early evening dress. By removing the jacket and adding a full cape, the dress became full evening apparel. A coulette skirt was added to create a late evening gown.

The first runner-up was Marilyn Wondra, 20, of 27th street and the second runner-up was Jerry Straka, 24, of Delmar avenue. Other contestants were Misses Linda Toburen, Dianne Haneline, Joyce Vizer, Gloria Zlot and Mary Walters, all of Granite City. Miss Wood, a former Texan, is the daughter of Mrs. Mary F. Wood. She moved to Granite City after being graduated from San Antonio high school in 1958. She is a senior at Southern Illinois University, with merchandising as her major field.

Sponsored in the pageant by Henry Ross Construction Co., she lists modern art, jazz, television, dancing and radio-television work among her hobbies. She weighs 110 and stands 5-3.

A crowd of about 400 watched the ceremonies at the GCIS auditorium.

A Roman setting of columns and classic simplicity provided a background.

Miss Suzanne Lenzow, the retiring queen, placed the crown on the new queen's head. She was presented with a corsage by Josephine, President Jerry McPherson. Chuck Norman was master-of-ceremonies. Miss Debby Presley gave a baton twirling exhibition.

A ball after the pageant attracted a capacity crowd at the Big Top Bowl 300 room.

MORE ABOUT 14 CD Shelters

governments can do the job effectively.

2-Week Period Friedman noted that Edward Teller, Nobel Prize-winning physicist and "father" of the hydrogen bomb, has said, "We must realize an all-out nuclear attack would not leave our nation uninhabitable. Reactivity days, and contamination would be critical for only about two weeks. During that time to survive, we must be sheltered against radio activity."

Forty Madison public buildings so far have been listed as adequate for full-scale shelter use.

They are the First Presbyterian Church, city hall, Glick's department store, Lahey and Sedack funeral homes, Louis Beer school underpass, Tony Ratchel's, First Baptist Church, First Methodist Church, Madison recreation center, Supreme Radio Co., Madison Packing Co., Friedman's and the St. Mary's Catholic Church and rectory.

Building Inspection Other buildings are being inspected at the present time for possible use as shelters. In addition, home shelters can be built and equipped in basements or in yards. Information about private shelters is available at the Madison post office and at Friedman's.

Could Save 140 Million The director of the Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization has noted administration plans to store emergency six-month stocks of wheat across the nation. Medical supplies also will be stockpiled, he said.

Biggest need, local and national authorities agree, is for individual, home shelters, Friedman points out. They state that future Russian strikes could kill only a small proportion of Americans by blast. Yet 100 million more could be killed by radioactive fallout unless they were prepared.

So far, natural shelters—not including caves and mines—have been located for about 45 to 50 million people. Next step is to supply them with the minimum facilities for survival, including food, blankets, medicine, first-aid kits and radiation dosimeters.

Plans call for shelters in all new federal buildings, and for encouraging builders of all new schools, supermarkets and stores to provide shelter areas.

The government soon will rush into production a home buzzer system which would warn every household in the nation of the imminence of an attack. This National Emergency Alarm Repeater system, NEAR—is still being tested.

A Madison first-aid class will begin Oct. 1, with Edna Mann as instructor. To enroll, interested persons can call Mann or Director Johnson.

Funeral For Former Resident, D. W. Gibson

Funeral services were conducted yesterday in Mount Olive for Dillard William Gibson, a former Quad-City area resident who died Thursday in a Litchfield hospital from a kidney ailment. He was the brother of Wayland Gibson of Venice, and Lloyd Gibson and Mrs. Richard (Lorraine) Greenwalt, both of Madison.

Mr. Gibson moved from this area to Mount Olive 20 years ago. Other survivors include his wife, Mrs. Evelyn Gibson; two sons, James of Mount Olive and Thomas of Edwardsville; a daughter, Kathryn, Mount Olive; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Gibson, Gillespie; two other brothers and five other sisters; and six grandchildren.

Auto Hits Sign, Pole, Driver Is Arrested Lawrence W. Jones, 24, of 2865 Center street was arrested by Madison police at 12:40 a.m. Saturday on charges of leaving the scene of an accident after the car he was driving allegedly struck a utility pole and parking sign on Eighth street near Madison avenue Friday night. A window of the car was broken, the right front tire blew out and the front end was damaged.

Police took the license number of the auto, which authorities traced to Jones. Police said he told of driving east on Eighth street about the time of the incident, but did not recall hitting anything. He was released after posting his driver's license as bond, to appear for a hearing later.

McKinley Traffic Likely To Top 4 Million For Year

Traffic over the Venice-owned McKinley Bridge, which reached record proportions in June, continued heavy in July, a monthly report by Manager Henry McMullen showed. A new high for the year now seems likely.

The 355,643 vehicular crossings and 11,472 daily average in May had new highs, only to be topped in June with figures of 359,448 and 11,981.

In July, the 355,984 crossing and 11,483 average each day were not records but were all-time peaks except for June.

A new record was set during the past month. This was the weekly mark of 88,251 attained July 15-21.

Previous weekly high was the 83,888 total for June 22-28; new records were set progressively in each week of June—82,859, 83,351, 83,574 and 83,588—to top the previous mark of 82,474 for May 22-28.

The July traffic increases crossing for the first time, 4,000,000 total for the fiscal year. This is the figure projected to balance bridge income and expenses.

Free Bridge Hearing As a bridge owner, the city is expected to send representatives to a hearing at 10 a.m. Wednesday, Aug. 30, in the St. Louis federal building on proposed construction of a free bridge between Poplar street, St. Louis, and Front street, East St. Louis, 1200 feet upstream from the MacArthur Bridge.

Hardy and Hanover, McKinley consulting engineers, also are being notified of the hearing. A similar hearing was held in September 1958 on the proposed free span north of Madison's Chain of Rocks Bridge.

Driver Falls To Stop

Gordon Pierson, 22, of 103 Kirkpatrick homes, reported to police that while he was driving north in a center lane of Madison avenue yesterday at 10:50 a.m., a southbound car crashed over the lane and struck his car, damaging the left side. Pierson said this.

Henry VanBibber, 76, Retired Trainman, Dies

Henry VanBibber, 2133 Adams street, a retired railroad worker, died at the Missouri-Pacific Hospital in St. Louis at 11:20 p.m. Friday at the age of 76. He had been hospitalized only a short time, but had been in declining health for three years. Mr. VanBibber was employed 42 years at the Illinois Terminal Railroad and was a trainman. A native of Warrenton, Mo., he moved to Granite City 45 years ago. He was a member of Masonic Lodge 835, the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and the American Amalgamated Association.

Survivors include his wife, Anna; one son, Vordman VanBibber of San Diego, Calif.; a daughter, Mrs. Marjorie Pickett, Winona, Minn.; a brother, Tom VanBibber of St. Louis; and four grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are given in an obituary elsewhere in this issue.

Soft Drink Plant To Serve Most of Country

By the end of October, a Granite City soft drink plant will be providing flavor concentrate for two-thirds of the United States.

The Royal Crown Cola Co., on Highway 67A south of the A. O. Smith Corp. plant, currently is expanding operations and in two months will cover the western part of the country.

Plant Manager Raburn Phillips said the plant, which opened in March, will be at two-thirds capacity by the middle of September and will go into full operation in October. At present the plant can produce 3000 one-gallon bottles of the flavor concentrate per day.

The local plant is one of two in the country which produce concentrate for the company. The other is located with the general Royal Crown Co. office at Columbus, Ga.

Checked Twice An unusual feature of the concentrate production is the double checking of samples before shipment. After production run of the flavoring has been completed, samples are taken and processed for purity and strength at both the local plant laboratory and at the central offices in Columbus.

The samples are sent by air mail before 3 p.m.—on the day they are produced. They arrive at the main laboratory in Georgia early the next morning and are sent again by air mail back to the plant in the afternoon. If approved, the concentrate is shipped the third day.

The steps in production begin as the plant receives raw products from such areas as Union Starch and Refining Co. and Monsanto Chemical Co. The ingredients are mixed, blended and then processed for a period. Before packaging, the flavoring is tested. Finally, it is ready for shipment to bottlers.

Shipped As Flavor, Not Syrup Phillips points out that the concentrate is not a syrup, such as is distributed by other companies. The flavoring is concentrated, allowing an additional period during shipping for aging. When it is received by bottlers, processed sugar and water are added and the syrup is created.

The plant uses some of its own flavoring products, as it houses a beverage canning section in its building. The concentrate section of the plant is at the front part of the building, directly adjacent and behind the offices.

At present the same personnel operate the two processes. On one or two days a week, the flavoring section is in operation while the remainder of the time is used for canning. Fourteen persons are filled on the production line.

The plant produces flavoring for four brands—Royal Crown, Upper 10, Nehi and Diet Rite. From 10 to 20 of the gallon bottles can be filled and made ready for packaging in a minute.

More personnel will be added after next summer, Phillips said, with most of the additional workers being college students home for three months. Because of the seasonal nature of the work, extra workers will be needed each summer, he added.

A United Fund Co-operating Agency

Girl Scouts Active Throughout Community

The Girl Scouts are the fastest-growing youth organization in the Quad-Cities. By next year, Girl Scout Council officials predict 3000 girls will be wearing the forest green of the Girl Scouts. In 1959, the figure stood at just half that—1500.

A United Fund agency, the Tri-City Girl Scout Council is training 55 additional leaders for the fall. For the past two years, enrollment has grown by 500 per year.

36% Of Local Girls
Currently 36% of all available girls are members of the Quad-Cities program. The percentage has increased steadily for five years. At present, nearly 77% of all local girls seven through ten are Brownies.

But to the girls themselves, such statistics are not very interesting. To them, Girl Scouts means trees, long walks, hamburgers cooked outdoors and colored uniforms. To them it means fun. Not just play, but fun in a valuable sense, enjoyment through achievement.

11-Fold Program
It also means being busy. An 11-fold program keeps the girls busy from the time they enter grade school until they graduate from high school.

They sample arts and crafts, literature and dramatics, music and dancing, community life, international friendship, nature, outdoors, sports and games, agriculture, health and safety and homemaking.

Adopt Elderly Couple
The two most extensive of Girl Scout activities are the community service projects during the winter and camping in the summer. Brownie troops each year "adopt" an elderly person or couple at a local nursing home, visiting them every week and helping them celebrate a birthday or anniversary. At Christmas the scouts stage a "festival of giving" by preparing food baskets for distribution by a welfare agency.

In summer, they plant trees and shrubbery in parks and near institutions. They go to St. Louis veterans' hospitals, local veterans and Camp Lakota, filling in areas barren of plant status. At 11, the Brownies trade in their tan uniforms for the green of the Girl Scouts. The older girls hand out posters at local business and public places. The scouts at the public library and at candy-stripe girls at St. Elizabeth Hospital, and do work at homes for the aged.

Baby Sitting

Often the girls will plan a party and travel to a children's home for an afternoon. They baby-sit for mothers who are attending PTA meetings. And they prepare handouts to be used at the hospital.

As the girls enter senior high school, they take on 24-hour status as Senior Girl Scouts. Having reached this point, they are given complete charge of their own activities, including meetings and projects.

Before they reach senior age, the scouts order their meetings according to a general schedule supplied annually by the council. But they select their own projects and govern their meetings, suggestions made beforehand by the leaders.

Summer Camps
All ages have a summer camp schedule during the summer and the construction of a winter lodge promises equal opportunity for winter months. Each year more than 200 Quad-City scouts spend part of their vacations at Camp Onataga at Pere Marquette state park in Grafton.

Two years ago local scout campsite was completed at Camp Lakota in the bluffs near Glen Carbon. This summer 224 scouts are taking part in the two weeks of camp at the site.

Staffed by volunteer leaders, the camp offers nature trails, ample game area and a new 63-foot lodge. The lodge is used during winter months for weekend trips.

The number of adult leaders assisting this year is 231, with about 300 expected by winter. They include mothers of scouts, many single women, teachers and former scouts. Each has received the four-day leader training course and works in close conjunction with the council.

Five Neighborhoods
The governing body of the council is the 21-member board of directors, headed by Mrs. George Eubanks. The council itself is divided into five sections called neighborhoods, and each neighborhood is in turn divided into troops.

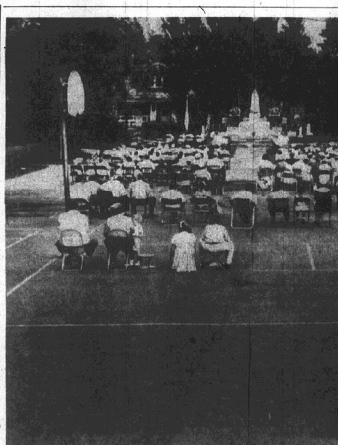

Council offices are at 1415 Niedringhaus avenue in the Darnier building. Workers are a full-time secretary, Mrs. Eubanks, Fuelkamp, and Mrs. Marcella Oranovich, part-time.

Original 20 persons, mostly teenagers, were arrested. During the incident, some of the group tried to push two cars into the water. Four were released to their parents because they were too young to be charged and a soldier was turned over to military authorities.

Fines ranged from $100 to $200 and some were reduced later.

Two Boaters Missing
Two unidentified Illinois boats have been missing since 6 p.m. Sunday. The two left west Alton, Mo., about 4 a.m. yesterday in an 18-foot white cabin cruiser and have not been heard from since, the Coast Guard said.

Airman Enters School
Airmen Ralph Hackney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Hackney, 622 Broadway, Venice, has completed six weeks of basic air training at Lackland Air Force Base, Tex., and is now in an eight-week aircraft warning and control school at Keesler Air Base, Miss. He is a 1961 graduate of Venice high school.

NIGHTLY NOVENA SERVICES are continuing at the outdoor shrine of St. Mark's Catholic Church, Venice, under sponsorship of Tri-City Knights of Columbus Council 1098.

Rehearing Denied On Revocation Denial

An application for rehearing before the Illinois Liquor Commission, from its July 14 decision reversing Madison County Liquor Commissioner Gus Hall's revocation of the county liquor permit for George's Place tavern near Granite City, on June 11, has been denied by the state commission. It was learned Friday at Edwardsville.

State's Attorney Dick H. Mudge, who filed the application for rehearing July 27, received the commission's decision from Springfield in the mail Friday.

Mudge had said prior to filing the application that if it were denied, he would file an appeal in circuit court under the administrative review act. His office has 30 days in which to do so, under the law.

Hadler had ordered the county liquor license for George's Place revoked following a hearing June 8, after testimony by a special investigator for the state's attorney's office that had been "solicited" by a waitress while investigating the place.

The licensee, George Nelson, subsequently took an appeal to the state liquor control commission and, after testimony, Hall's order was reversed.

Vandals Damage Auto Inside Garage At Home
Vandals badly damaged the 1955 auto of A. D. Hall, 1513 Pontoon road, while it was parked in the garage at his home Saturday night, police were notified at 10:15 a.m. Sunday.

The radio aerial and windshield wipers were broken, wiper compartment bent, gear compartment door damaged and right taillight lens broken out.

Last 'Canal Party' Member Freed Saturday
The last of 15 persons charged with disorderly conduct and jailed at Edwardsville after an all-night party on the Chain of Socks canal levee July 28 was released Saturday.

Original 20 persons, mostly teenagers, were arrested. During the incident, some of the group tried to push two cars into the water. Four were released to their parents because they were too young to be charged and a soldier was turned over to military authorities.

Fines ranged from $100 to $200 and some were reduced later.

Two Boaters Missing
Two unidentified Illinois boats have been missing since 6 p.m. Sunday. The two left west Alton, Mo., about 4 a.m. yesterday in an 18-foot white cabin cruiser and have not been heard from since, the Coast Guard said.

Six Youths Arrested For Curfew Violation

Five Granite City youths and one Mitchell boy were arrested early Saturday by Granite City police. Four were picked up at 3 a.m. in the 1800 block of Madison avenue and the other two were arrested 20 minutes later at 21st street and Edison avenue.

All six appeared before Magistrate Gasparovic this morning and pleaded guilty as charged. Three were fined $5 each plus costs for violation of the curfew; one was fined $5 plus costs for drunkenness; another was fined $10 plus costs for drunkenness and $25 plus costs for violating the curfew a second time; and the last youth was fined $5 plus costs for curfew violation and $10 and costs for drunkenness.

He had been served a warrant for petty larceny, signed by a city official early Saturday morning. Basis of the warrant was not reported.

Meet Through Lunch
Today's session, which continued through the normal lunch time, is being held at a St. Louis attorney's office.

James Mason Jr., Edwardsville, executive secretary of the Southern Illinois Laborers' District Council, told the Press-Record during the weekend that all projects except those involving Local 397 and SIBA members have been resumed. "There is also general agreement between them on wages," he added.

Many street, school, commercial and residential construction jobs have been at a standstill in the Quad-Cities since Aug. 1. Many groups other than laborers also are affected.

Strikes Utility Pole
Police reported that a car driven by Pvt. Charles Claggett, Granite City Engineer Dept., jumped the curb, narrowly missing a parked car and struck a utility pole in the 900 block of Niedringhaus avenue at 4:40 a.m. Friday. No injuries were reported.

Cars Damaged In Crash
Autos driven by Robert Pilec, 21, of 2108 East 20th street, and William Eaker, Box 341, Highway 162, suffered slight damage in a collision at Edwardsville road and Greenwood street, Madison, Thursday.

Wittewrongels Return
Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Wittewrongels, 1605 Garfield avenue, with their daughter, Elizabeth, and son, James, returned last night from a month's stay in Fort Collins, Colo., where the Nimers taught summer courses at Colorado State University. Enroute home, the family stopped in Des Moines, Ia., for a brief visit with relatives. Wittewrongel is administrative assistant in charge vocational and adult education in Granite City.

Phone Calls Faster, Cheaper, Club Told

Nobody Optimists Thursday afternoon were hosts to a Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. official who explained the company's direct dialing system and traced the rapid rise of the telephone industry.

Wait Salamo, assistant traffic supervisor at the utility's East St. Louis office, noted that the first long-distance New York to Chicago call was made in 1876. In 1915, the first call was made from New York to San Francisco, one taking 14 minutes to connect and costing $4.60 for three minutes.

Today, the same distance call takes three seconds to dial directly and costs $1.50. Dialing directly is possible through division of the country into sections with varying 3-digit codes, Salamo said. A new system of punched tape billing has been developed to record all calls.

George Mause, the new manager of the Granite City telephone office, was introduced to the group. Forty members were present, with Tony Michel, Herman Mueller, Marvin Dean and Earl Lee being presented paperweight models of the princess phone.

End Of Line Building Ought To Be Padlocked Or Torn Down

The End of the Line building at the end of Bend road, which has been the scene of vice raids, and its operation, Thomas McGovern, are in the news again. At 3 o'clock the other morning, he was shot and two young women in the joint were bound and gagged by holdup men. This should be the "last straw"; the place should be eliminated once and for all by county authorities.

It is somewhat of a mystery why McGovern and the two women were at the End of the Line at that time of night; it is not a restaurant or tavern. But there is no doubt that it has been a trouble spot for the county, with its location far from easily-patrolled streets and highways making it difficult to check. There also can be no doubt of illegal activities, as attested to by past raids and arrests, nor of the nuisance it presents to families living nearby. There has been a large volume of night taxis and auto traffic along Bend road from time to time over a period of several years.

The notorious establishment ought to be put permanently out of business. At the very least, it should be padlocked, and it would be far better if it were torn down. Perhaps the county, with its condemnation powers and right to inspect insanitary, ramshackle buildings, could take action on this basis if no other methods are feasible.

Courage, Resourcefulness Shown By Community During Disaster

The explosion which wrecked part of the Nestle instant coffee plant took a tragic toll of two dead, six injured, extensive damage and a long curtailment of production. But, looking back, the community can take pride in one aspect of the disaster—the prompt and generous response to meet a wide variety of emergency needs.

Tools, labor, specialized skills, transportation, food, cranes, bulldozers, searchlights, trucks, ambulances, firefighting, traffic officers, medical aid and much more were among the melange of men, machines, services and goods summoned without notice to aid in one of the highest callings—saving of human life. A response of the success is that the but those immediately killed are recovering, some having crawled to safety and others being helped or dug out.

Not only those asked to help responded. Hundreds of volunteers took part, many of them remaining at the scene the entire 14½ hours in which the trapped men's fate hung in the balance. The hazardous task of sorting through the broken bricks and concrete was related and assigned entirely voluntarily, with each call for men quickly answered. When lightning was flashing and rain pouring late in the night, all held steadfast to their duties despite the adverse conditions.

For a day and a night, the Quad-Cities had a taste of what many communities faced in wartime. All pray that such disasters will remain a rarity, but it seems clear after last week's events that local people have the heart and determination to cope with whatever lies ahead. The explosion also demonstrated the value, in peacetime as well as war, of having a large proportion of the population trained in civil defense, first-aid and related fields.

To Sing An African Song . . . . .

(Editor's note: This is the third of a series of guest editorials by Oguir Biliel Nanyama, a student who is doing post-graduate work at Southern Illinois University and is currently on the news staff of the Press-Record.)

He was sitting on his bed when I entered the room.

I said, "Hello, are you Elikana Mbatia from Kenya?"

"Yes," he said, with a broad smile shining in his snowlike teeth. "I am. How are you?"

This happened last August.

We were at the Kansas University Orientation Center with 70 students from all around the world.

With a rather heavy program, we students from foreign countries were trying to adapt ourselves to the college life in this New World.

In one month, we had lectures about many different subjects, visited libraries, museums, factories. At the same time we had really valuable information about many aspects of the American way of life. This was a ready-to-go preparation to our studies in this country.

But this was not all. Mbatia and I were room-mates. After the day's work, we went to our room to study, to write letters, and to talk. Till the odd hours of the night we discussed many problems of our countries. He was a teacher; I, too, had taught some time ago and planned to teach again. So our discussions were mostly about education.

MIRACLE SERVICE SUNDAY 2:30 P. M.

"DON'T MISS THIS GREATEST SERVICE OF ALL"

HUNDREDS HAVE BEEN DELIVERED IN THESE MEETINGS. WHY NOT YOU?

- PRAYERS FOR THE SICK IN EVERY SERVICE
- DYNAMIC PREACHING
- FAITH BUILDING SERVICES

After 34 years of Gospel Ministry in the Pentecostal Faith, Bro. Van Hoose has moved out into a deeper ministry that has brought miraculous results. How his experience of meeting an Angel, the revival that came to his Church—how people began to fall under the power—how he dipped his hands in the pool of Bethesda in Jerusalem.

REV. ROSS SMITH AND CHURCH SPONSORS

In order to get rid of the ruining disease of ignorance in our countries, the light of education was a must. He gave many examples out of his experiences and I gave mine.

Time passed and we knew that we two speak the same language. Problems, plans and hopes, more or the less were the same. We became good friends then.

He was a very devoted Christian. One day he told me that, a long time ago, he hated Turks.

"Because," he said, "I have been told that Turks have killed many Christians." And then one of those sunny African smiles flashed in his face and he added "but it was a long time ago when I was too young."

Despite all differences of religion, color, race, nationality among us, we 70 students in this international school were in a happy medium. Nobody had any prejudice against anybody. There was just one common goal among us to learn something, to carry it back to our countries.

Mbatia used to sing a song. This was an exotic, sweet African song. He taught it to me.

Tina mafana

Mafana walukebe.

Tina mafana

Mafana sikumino.

He said the song was about Africa, its people, its mountains, its rivers, its jungles. . . . I said, "It is a beautiful song. About people, friendship, peace, understanding, tolerance. About happiness of us."

He said, "All right, as you wish. Let us sing the song."

We sang together:

Tina mafana

Mafana walukebe . . .

Planning for the future is the only way to improve the future.

WHY ISN'T MADISON SWIMMING POOL OPEN?

To the Editor:

A Madison resident has twice asked the same question. "Why isn't the Madison swimming pool open for use?" There are a number of possible reasons, such as, lack of funds to operate it, mechanical difficulties, sanitation problems, or an unwillingness to let everyone participate in its use.

Since no reason has yet been given publicly, the latter excuse may possibly be the correct one. If so, this is a social problem. Who can handle this in a fair and reasonable manner, so the pool may be enjoyed and used before it deteriorates?

In the issue of the Press when the "pool question" was first asked, on page 1, there was an account of a Ministers' Committee which was quick to act and protect in a situation concerning alcoholism. They are to be commended for being alert to this evil.

There are other social problems that affect many more than the thousands of people represented by this Committee. Some of them are: federal aid to education, medical care for the aged through Social Security, integration in schools, churches, housing, and means of travel, (after all, wasn't Paul a "freedom-riders" in his day?) Jesus never hesitated to point out injustices.

The churches use valuable space in the columns of this newspaper. They could present a great service to the community, if these problems were to be discussed from a strong and sincere Christian point of view.

This would be a good time to start, before the Ministers' columns fall into a rigid pattern of quotations. The answer to a child's question, "Why isn't the pool open?" can be as profound and meaningful as the answer to a child's question concerning the beauties of nature.

Certainly the church has some inspiring answers and suggestions.

Mass Tuesday Night To Close Fatima Novena

A large crowd is expected for the close of the outdoor novena to Our Lady of Fatima Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. The final service will include a high Mass celebrated by Fr. Robert McCarthy, pastor of St. Mark's Catholic Church, Venice, scene of the nine day ceremonies.

Attendance has averaged over 300 persons at the nightly services, about double the usual average in past years. More than 500 persons are expected to appear Tuesday.

Speaker each night during the novena has been Fr. Frederick McCarthy, pastor of St. Mary's Church, Edwardsville.

May Include 5 Topics In Legislature Call

Gov. Otto Kerner said Thursday at a press conference in Springfield that as many as five topics may be listed in his call for a special legislative session, date of which is indefinite but will be "as soon as possible."

He listed Congressional reapportionment, drafting of a proposed constitution, revenue amendment, giving Cook county 18 additional superior court judges, and providing a state subsidy for pupil transportation by the Chicago Transit Authority. Fifth subject was not explained, but it may be stricter regulation of driver fitness and health.

THE PASTOR SPEAKS

by Rev. David Bruce Maston, Pastor, First Presbyterian Church, Granite City

The psychologist Hulme tells us that "discouragement and faith are so thoroughly opposites that we dislike even to think about faith when we are down."

It is as though the darkness had overcome the light. But faith traces a thread of purpose through what otherwise looks like chaos. So long as it holds together, it is its own evidence of order and direction.

The Bible calls it "the evidence of things not seen." Faith is needed when everything is going wrong. It is when the evidence that is seen is removed that we get a chance to appraise our reliance on the evidence that is not seen.

The thing that stands out in the experience of life is that faith is something that emerges out of an inner and victorious struggle with discouragement. The Apostle Paul describes this struggle in many different ways. He calls it an inner wrestling one time. On another occasion to a young friend he wrote:

"Fight the good fight of faith." Still another time he calls it "warfare."

In his letter to the Ephesians, he even describes the kind of armor and the type of weapon a faith-

Christian needs to fight this battle. Finally, at the close of his life as he waits in prison for execution, he writes in what is perhaps his last letter, "I have fought a good fight. I have finished the race. I have kept the faith."

When we are discouraged it is because things look bad. Our faith is not in things—it is in God. God is the assurance that things are under control, even when they appear to be the opposite. In moments of discouragement, it is the thought of God that creates hope. The way to fight the good fight of faith is to make continuous effort to hold the thought of God in the focus of your mind. This assurance in the thought of God can become so real that it may warm our hearts as though its evidence were seen.

There is a proverb in the Bible that conveniently divides into four directives for fighting the battle against discouragement. It may help you to print these four steps on a card and place it on your desk or sink:

1. Trust in the Lord with all your heart;

2. Lean not upon thine own understanding;

3. In all thy ways acknowledge Him;

4. And He shall direct thy paths.

Small Industries Here Form C of C Committee

Representatives of six small local manufacturing firms attended the meeting, with Milton Morris elected temporary chairman. The firms were Brockus Machine Works, Milnor Manufacturing Co., Arnette Pattern Co., Chris Kaye Plastics, Granite Sheet Metal Works and Edison Tool and Die Co. Two others also were invited.

The representatives concluded that by organizing they could assist each other in areas of business development and education. Other local firms will be invited to the next meeting Sept. 28.

Sanitation Dept. - Garbage, Refuse, Insect Spraying, Weed Cutting

(This is the 18th in a series of articles based on a reorganization study of city government in Granite City by Southern Illinois University.)

A continued study of the city's sanitation department by the SIU team of experts shows that the crews consist of 18 men who are paid $510 a month, $15 more than a street department employee.

"They work from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. five days a week and one employee, paid at the same rate, works evenings to clean and gas all the trucks, including those of the street department. A crew of three is assigned to each truck, one driving and two picking up. The six drivers have been on the job about 10 years and know the city well. The turnover in employment of the men has been low recently because of the unemployment situation, but in times of high employment, the trucks follow regular routes in making their once-a-week pickup of garbage and refuse in the community. At times, it is necessary for both trucks to pick up garbage and then both pick up cans when, as happened the past winter, garbage freezes in the can.

No Route Studies

"The route studies are not based upon any detailed study of number of pickups, time per pickup and dead time in traveling to the dump. The trucks usually make two trips per day to the dump except for the small trucks which make three.

"All garbage and refuse pickups are made at the curb. All of the city except the new subdivisions which constitute about 10% have alleys. The refuse and garbage collection ordinance requires that separate cans of specified sizes be maintained for garbage and for tin cans and bottles. The ordinance allows paper to be placed in the garbage can which permits the wrapping of garbage. Many residents put the garbage in paper milk cartons. The large amount of paper in the garbage would make it more difficult to handle. The scheduling of the equipment has to be varied by the wind direction. The city inspector also keeps two pieces of equipment near each other, in case of trouble. There is a fire hazard involved in operating the equipment and fire extinguishers must be carried.

"A problem with the fogging program is the difficulty with children following the apparatus too closely. The police have been called in and have been placed in the paper advising parents to keep their children away.

"The expense of the insect control program, excluding salaries which are included in the garbage and refuse collection service amounted to $11,799 in 1959 and $9,406 in 1960. Equipment maintenance is included in the garbage and refuse figures.

"There seems to be relatively good acceptance of the insect spraying program. The switch-board operator receives calls from people who are against spraying as well as from people who think the equipment missed their area. Generally, the calls for the spraying exceed those against. The service probably would be sorely missed if it were to be discontinued.

Weed Cutting Procedures

"Weed cutting in the city is handled both by city forces and by contract.

Arrested for speeding at 25th street and Lincoln avenue Thursday afternoon was George W. Jordan, 18, of 2108 Monroe-cash bail.

Local Leader Attends Scout Summit Conclave

Donald A. Beck, 3329 Palm

avenu, an explorer adviser at the Chokoma Wood Council, Boy Scouts of America, took part in the week-long national 1961 Town and Country Conference at the 127,000-acre Philmont Scout Ranch, Cimarron, N. M., through Sunday.

Beck was one of 40 explorer advisors recognized for outstanding service to youth and leadership in scouting's current "Strengthen America, Character Counts" program from among the nation's 1,300,000 volunteer leaders in the Boy Scouts. This recognition brought with it a scholarship grant covering expenses for himself and his wife for attendance at the conference at the Philmont National Training Center.

The conference was described as "a summit conference of scout leaders" by Wheeler McMillen, chairman of the National Rural Service Committee and vice-president of the Farm Journal, who said, "the need for scout's character-building and citizenship training programs are greater than ever before. Very special problems are created in this fast-changing world in bringing modern scouting to all boys, rural as well as urban."

"It is men like this leader who have not only set examples of outstanding youth leadership, but to whom we look to help others meet the challenges of these crucial years in the guiding of developing minds."

Active 15 years, Beck has been active in scouting for over 15 years and has served the past two years as advisor for Post Six, which is sponsored by the Cornforth Lutheran Church. Under his leadership, this post has carried out a wide variety of activities and has built up a long record of achievements.

Beck is married and is employed by the Granite City Steel Co.

He is also active in his church, the Naval Reserve and the Granite City Civic Association.

An honest housewife came to the rescue of a dismayed bank teller here Thursday evening when she returned an overpayment of $275 because it would have been "just like stealing" to keep it.

spotted, the bank — which by then was conducting a search for the missing money — was notified.

The teller who had made the error "thanked me and thanked me and thanked me," Mrs. Ishum said.

"Some people told us that we sure could have splurged on our vacation," Mrs. Ishum said, "but I doubt if we'd have enjoyed it. We'd have kept the money."

She said although no monetary reward was given, a different kind of reward will come, because "a person only gets what's coming to him."

Beautifully Grained Walnut

Equally at home in the city apartment or suburban home. The design motif... a theme taken from modern wood sculpture. Especially interesting is the moulded relief on doors and drawers, the back galleries that curve upward to the wall, the recessed drawer pulls. Decorating with sculptria is a real pleasure for its subtle hint of "import" sophistication takes perfectly to "today's" decorating colors.
